CELEBRATING THE ART AND THE MANY LIVES OF BOB DYLAN • NOBEL PRIZE LAUREATE SONG & DANCE MAN

ESTABLISHED 2006 BY PETER HOLST • 10TH YEAR AND RUNNING.

Welcome to another edition of the Bob Cats Newsletter. It's night time in the big city as Pax Proctor, priest of the Cavendish parish, puts on his cap and cape for the morning walk in the secret garden humming a tune from the Aznavour playlist. It's all flowers and greens, budding rosebuds bidding pollination, butterflies and snakes roaming in search for sweet nectar, sticklebacks and frogs. Outside the walls of this sanctum a cab stops by the traffic light and cracked actor Cornwell steps out of it with available grace, spreads his wings towards the sky in a prayer, groans and still earthbound hits the Black Swan for a pint.

FLASHES FROM THE PAST

There were three sailors, bold and true
With cargo they did carry
They sailed away on the ocean blue
For the love of Spanish Mary

So deeply now were they disturbed
No longer could they tarry
Swoon and swerve
For the love of Spanish Mary

In Kingston Town of high degree
The buffoon, the fool, the fairy
All paid the dues and inquired to me
For the love of Spanish Mary
Beggars man, beggars man tell me no lie
Is it a mystery to live or is it a mystery to die?

I seek ye not to ask of you
It was in Kingston Town indeed
It is said they stopped but not for greed
But for the love of Spanish Mary

I remember well, they came one day
The buffoon, the fool, the fairy
They asked of me what could I say
For the love of Spanish Mary

'Tis not of me to talk absurd
No rumour do I carry
No, I'll not give you one word
But for the love of Spanish Mary
Beggars man, beggars man tell me no lie
Is it a mystery to live or is it a mystery to die?

(Spanish Mary: lost on the river: the new basement tapes)

MAY YOUR SONG ALWAYS BE SUNG: THE SONGS OF BOB DYLAN, VARIOUS ARTISTS, 1997

<https://alanbumstead.wordpress.com/2017/06/09/may-your-song-always-be-sung-the-songs-of-bob-dylan-various-artists-1997/>

GOOD NIGHT

Here's to the love you gave to me
In spite, in secret and in hate, in open air for all to see
Here's to the love you gave to me
For bad and worse, against your will, for to be your company

Here's to the cross in solid gold
Chains a-glistening in the setting of a rising sun
To break in tears or for to hold
Warm in heat, cold in dark
Phantoms on a scorched earth run

Here's to the love I gave to you
In joy and fear, regrets and praise for what I did and didn't do
Here's to the love I gave to you
Too scant to mention, strong enough to make a mark on me too
